YOU SHOULD READ THE FOLLOWING IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of insurance (other than a life policy), you have a duty to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know that may affect a prudent insurer's decision to insure you, and if so, on what terms. The duty of disclosure is an ongoing duty, it also applies: after you complete a proposal and throughout the term of the policy (including before you renew, vary or reinstate a contract of insurance).

You do not need to tell the insurer anything that:

- reduces the insurer's risk;
- is common knowledge;
- your insurer knows or should know as an insurer; or
- the insurer waives compliance in relation to your duty of disclosure.

If you are uncertain about whether or not a particular matter should be disclosed to the insurer, please contact your Aon Client Relationship Manager.

Non-disclosure

If you do not tell your insurer anything you are required to, the insurer may cancel your contract or reduce the amount that it is required to pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to disclose is fraudulent, the insurer may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Policy Warranties and Conditions

Your policy may contain warranties and/or conditions that may impose specific obligations which must be complied with. Failure to do so may invalidate your policy or enable insurers to decline liability.

Aon Terms of Business

Except as otherwise agreed (in writing), you agree that Aon's Terms of Business apply to the provision of our services. These terms are available here <https://www.aon.co.nz/About-Aon/Terms-of-Business>, including a summary of recent amendments, and apply to all new business and renewals. You accept these terms by continuing to instruct us.

Key provisions include:

- Our obligation to perform our services competently, with reasonable care, skill and integrity.
- Your obligation to supply us with all material information and facts in relation to the provision of our services, (relevant information includes all information and facts that may be material to an insurers' assessment of a risk for which you have asked us to arrange insurance cover).
- Our remuneration. Aon may receive consideration from insurers, banks and/or finance companies with whom we place insurance and associated services, on your behalf.
- Service and administration fees: minimum fees may apply;
- Limitation of liability: Among other things, to the extent permitted by law:
 - our aggregate liability in respect of any claims howsoever arising in connection with the terms or our services is limited to NZ$1 million or such other amount as may be expressly agreed between us in writing; and
 - we are not liable for any consequential, incidental, indirect or special damage or loss of any kind.

Payment of Premiums

Premiums are payable on invoice. It is your obligation to ensure that you pay your premium(s) on time. Your policy may be terminated if you do not pay the premium(s) within the time period(s) notified to you by the insurer. Aon reserves the right to receive interest and charge interest, collection costs and legal fees incurred in recovering overdue accounts. Part payment of your invoice will not amount to full and final settlement unless we have agreed to this in writing. Premium funding arrangements may be available through your Aon broker.

Making a Complaint

Please contact your Aon Client Relationship Manager or your local Aon office by telephone, email or in writing if you have any complaint in respect to Aon. If your Aon Client Relationship Manager is not able to resolve your complaint, it will be referred to Aon's Complaint Manager for an independent review in accordance with Aon's internal complaint and dispute resolution procedures. Alternatively, you can contact Aon's Complaint Manager directly on 09 362 9000 or you can email details of your complaint to us in writing at nzfeedback@aon.co.nz. If your complaint remains unresolved, or if you are dissatisfied with Aon's response to your complaint, you may refer the matter to Financial Services Complaints Limited by emailing info@fscl.org.nz or calling 0800 347257.
